8. MOTION: HON. DAVID KEITANY –(CHAIR- COMMITTEE ON TRADE)

Aware that the County Government of Uasin Gishu is currently preparing a Valuation Roll for the County; Further Aware that the County has invited the County residents to inspect the same at the County headquarters in Eldoret town; Concerned that currently there are long queues of people at the County Headquarters struggling to inspect the document; Noting that many residents might end up not accessing the Valuation roll for inspection and comments; Cognizant that according to the Public Finance Management Act (2012) Article 125 (2) clearly states that C.E.C member for Finance shall ensure that there is public participation in the budget process or for that matter any issue pertaining to the public. This County Assembly urges the County Government of Uasin Gishu through the Department of Finance and Economic Planning to:-

- a) Organize public participation for the residents to understand it before giving their views.
- b) Decentralize the inspection of the Valuation Roll by the public from the County Treasury headquarters to Ward offices for effective public participation.
- c) Extend deadline from 25th September, 2019 to 26th October, 2019 to allow the public have time to give their views and the consultants to come up with Valuation Roll for other areas.
